

ESCONDIDO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY NEWSLETTER

Dedicated to Publishing and Preserving Family and Local History

Please Join us in our monthly Meeting

October 23, 2021

Doors open at 9:45 and meeting begins at 10:00 am

Program:

Pensions and Bounty Land

By Tom Johnston

Park Ave Community Center
Maple Room

210 E. Park Avenue, Escondido, CA 92025

Upcoming Meetings

November 20, 2021, Meeting:
Sid Shapira will be our speaker, she will do a presentation on how to write your family story for future generations

December 2021:
Ray and Gail Raser will host our annual EGS Potluck. DTBD

January 22, 2022 Meeting:
Jean Wilcox Hibben will be the speaker.

EGS September 2021 Meeting

Ruth Wehner brought a wedding dress, worn by her aunt, Edna (Francis) Crim, at her wedding in October 1922.

Sharon McIlwain shared a gravy boat that belonged to her Second Great Grandmother, Katherine T. Walsh and was brought here from Ireland.

Tom Johnston shared thoughts from the article about research that is available for all to read in the 2019-2020 Hidden Valley Journal.

Marlene Aldaray reviewed her article about her parents that was published in the Hidden Valley Journal.

David Ryan discussed his personal research and how he was finally able to complete his line and was accepted into the Mayflower Society. He also shared how good it made him feel that his family is finally getting involved in learning about their family history and genealogy.

Sharon McIlwain & Gail Raser

Ray Raser shared his personal books, called My Pastbook and Best of Facebook 2010-2019 created from his FaceBook posts of the last 10 years.

Audrey Stetson shared links to her three genealogy social media sites

Steve, Joe, Suzanne, josh, Ray, Jake & John Raser

Gail & Ray Raser with their grand children

Sharon McIhvain & Audrey Stetson

Social Media Links & Resources

Audrey Stetson

Facebook Genealogy Resources

<https://www.facebook.com/mygenealogyresources>

Twitter- Beyond Brick Walls

<https://twitter.com/BeyondBrickWal1>

Linkedin- Group named Genealogy...Beyond the brick walls!

<https://www.linkedin.com/groups/4102086/>